

Courtesy of Christian Education Leadership Academy

CELA collects Soles for Jesus

PEWAUKEE — Christian Education Leadership Academy students and staff collected a total of 507 new or gently used pairs of shoes for their mission project, Soles for Jesus. Students also decorated shoes with their chapel buddies during CVLD class. It was a way to share the love of Jesus with people in Africa. Many of the decorated shoes displayed messages of hope to the African people.